What Makes a Trained Leader?

Leaders are considered trained once complete with Youth Protection Training (YPT-2) and the required courses listed in the boxes below.

Direct Contact Leaders (SMs, ASMs, Cubmasters, Den Leaders, Advisors) must also take Weather Hazards Training (on-line).

Once trained, adult leaders may wear the official Trained emblem on the left sleeve. If an adult leader changes leadership position, the leader shall take the training for the new position to continue to wear the trained strip.

All leaders must retake new Youth Protection Training 2 [YPT 2] before 9/30/18.

Many of the courses are offered online at <https://my.scouting.org/>.

Required Training:

ALL LEADERS

Youth Protection Training (YPT-2)

Required for all adults. All currently registered adults must ensure they take Youth Protection Training 2 (YPT 2) before 9/30/2018. Each adult must take YPT 2 at least every two years to stay current.

BSA SCOUT LEADERS

• SMs and ASMs

1. Troop Leader
2. Introduction to Outdoor Leader Skills (IOLS)
3. Weather Hazards

• Committee Members: Troop Committee Challenge

VENTURING LEADERS

Advisors & Committees (VLST) and Youth (VLSC)

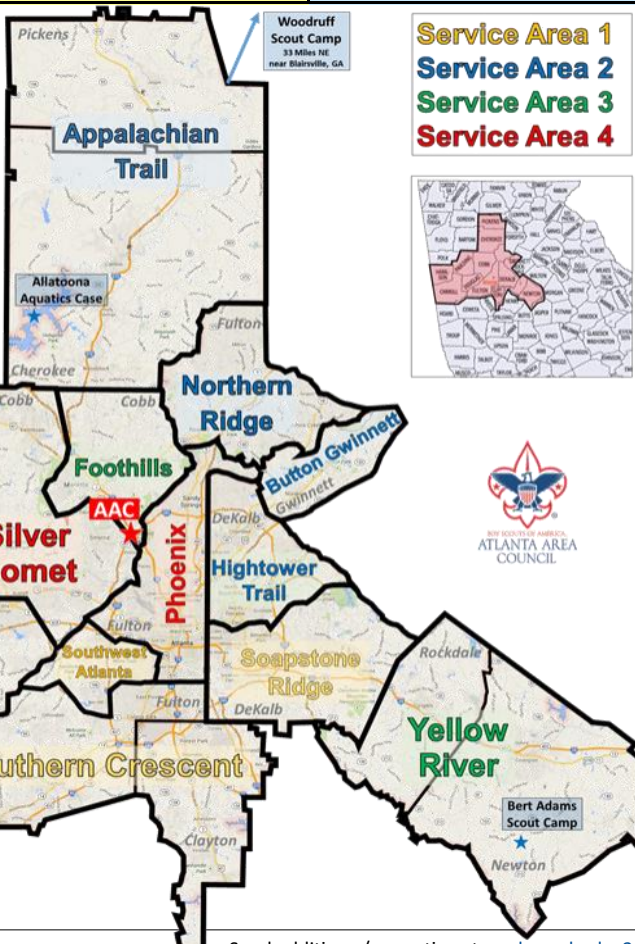

1. Venturing Leader-Specific Training
2. Weather Hazards

CUB SCOUT LEADERS

Specific training for every Cub Scouting role is offered. If a change in leadership position occurs, the leader must take the training for the new position to continue to wear the trained strip.

- Lion, Tiger, Wolf, Bear & Webelos Den Leaders: Den Leader Position-Specific Training, Weather Hazards
- Cubmaster and Assistant Cubmaster: Cubmaster Position-Specific Training, Weather Hazards
- Pack Committee: Pack Committee Position-Specific Training; this is also called Pack Committee Challenge
- Pack Trainer: Pack Committee Training as noted above plus shall take Fundamentals of Training
- Cub Recruiting: This course is for those responsible for doing fall recruiting & School night events. Some instructors offer a combined form for Den Leaders, Cubmasters, and Committee all in one course.
